American Lucky Coins* exhibit now on display at Oak Lawn Branch Library:

The paintings are by contemporary painter and sculptor Eric Trich of Dallas

DALLAS – American Lucky Coins, a series of paintings by artist Eric Trich is on display at the Oak Lawn Branch of the Dallas Public Library, 4100 Cedar Springs Road. The paintings represent 12 American coin faces as interpreted by the artist. The installation is sponsored courtesy of the Ichihara Family Collection, Tokyo, Japan.

Trich studied at the Art Institute of Dallas and currently studies at Southern Methodist University's Meadows School of the Arts. He has had one solo exhibition and participated in two group shows since his debut in October 2007.

"We are grateful to the Ichihara Family for loaning us this wonderful collection of paintings for the public to view and enjoy," said Oak Lawn Branch Manager Christina Worden. The exhibition will be on display at the Oak Lawn Branch through Sept. 4.

The Dallas Public Library operates the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, 1515 Young St. and 25 branch locations. A library card is free for any Dallas resident. For information on the many free programs and services available at the Dallas Public Library, go to: <http://dallaslibrary.org/home.htm>
